Welcome to the Global Watch Weekly Report

Dear Rema Marketing Member

In this edition we take time to focus on the Vatican focusing both on a specific order within the Roman Catholic Church called the Society of Jesus, commonly known as the Jesuits. Who are the Jesuits and why is there so much controversy regarding their function inside the Catholic Church?

For years much has been written about this secret order yet the appointment of Pope Francis (Jorge Mario Bergoglio) as the new pope several years ago again put the spotlight even more on this organization. Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, Bergoglio worked briefly as a chemical technician and nightclub bouncer before beginning seminary studies. He was ordained a Catholic priest in 1969 and from 1973 to 1979 was Argentina's Provincial superior of the Society of Jesus. He became the Archbishop of Buenos Aires in 1998 and was created a cardinal in 2001 by Pope John Paul II.

Following the resignation of Pope Benedict XVI on 28 February 2013, a papal conclave elected Bergoglio as his successor on 13 March. He chose Francis as his papal name in honor of Saint Francis of Assisi. Francis is the first Jesuit pope, the first from the Americas, the first from the Southern Hemisphere and the first non-European pope since the Syrian Gregory III in 741, 1,272 years earlier.

We uncover the true status and intent of the order which groomed him and prepared him where we now have both the head of the Vatican and the head of the Society of Jesus as strong Jesuit champions.

JESUITS

THE JESUITS - A STRATEGIC ORDER

"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves." – Jesus in Matthew 7:15 (NKJV)

"We came in like lambs and will rule like wolves." - Francesco Borgia, Third Jesuit Superior General.

On 15 August 1534, Ignatius of Loyola (born Íñigo López de Loyola), a Spaniard of Basque origin, and six other students at the University of Paris, Francisco Xavier from Navarre (modern Spain), Alfonso Salmeron, Diego Laínez, Nicolás Bobadilla from Spain, Peter Faber from Savoy, and Simão Rodrigues from Portugal—met in Montmartre outside Paris, in a crypt beneath the church of Saint Denis, now Saint Pierre de Montmartre.

They called themselves the Company of Jesus, and also Amigos en El Señor or "Friends in the Lord", because they felt "they were placed together by Christ". The name had echoes of the military (as in an infantry "company"), as well as of discipleship (the "companions" of Jesus).

In 1537, they traveled to Italy to seek papal approval for their order. Pope Paul III gave them a commendation, and permitted them to be ordained priests. These initial steps led to the founding of what would be called the Society of Jesus later in 1540. The term societas in Latin is derived from socius, a partner or comrade.

The Society of Jesus, more commonly referred to as the Jesuits, are the armed militia of the Roman Catholic Church. They were sanctioned in 1540 by Pope Paul III with a mandate: to defeat Protestantism and regain global Papal rule.

The Counter-Reformation was the period of beginning with the Council of Trent (1545–1563) and ending at the close of the Thirty Years' War, 1648 as a response to the Protestant Reformation. The Jesuits are the militia and foot soldiers for Rome. The Counter-Reformation was a comprehensive effort to overcome Protestantism, Using four major elements:

1. Ecclesiastical or structural reconfiguration (to infiltrate Protestantism)
2. Religious orders (Knights of Columbus,

Opus Dei, Knights of Malta)

3. Spiritual movements (to bring in psychology to replace Spiritually)
4. Political dimensions (The founding of America and 28 Jesuit University's and to infiltrate Freemasonry, start American revolution, French revolution)

Quoted from their Jesuit Oath:

I further more promise and declare that I will, when opportunity present, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth; and that I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants heads against the walls in order to annihilate forever their execrable race.

Needless to say, they are achieving great success in their mission, which is climaxing with the present pope, Pope Francis, who held some of the highest positions in Argentina, including Provincial Superior in the Society of Jesus and Archbishop of Buenos Aires. He was made a cardinal by Pope John Paul II.

JESUITS

Though more recently established, more traditionalist movements and religious orders such as Opus Dei and the Legionaries of Christ have gotten more attention of late, the Jesuits are still far and away the largest clerical order in the Church. The Superior General of the Society of Jesus is the official title of the leader of the Roman Catholic religious order, the Jesuits. He is generally addressed as Father General. The position sometimes carries the derogatory nickname of the Black Pope. The current Superior General is the Reverend Father Adolfo Nicolás.

Father General Nicolás [Superior General of the Society of Jesus/Jesuits] met with Pope Francis and wrote of his experience.

“At the personal invitation of the Pope Francis I went to the Santa Marta House. . . He was at the entrance and received me with the usual Jesuit embrace. We had a few pictures taken, at his request, and at my apologies for not keeping protocol he insisted that I treat him like any other Jesuit at the “Tu” level, so I did not have to worry about addressing him as “Your Holiness,” or “Holy Father.” I offered him all our Jesuit resources because in his new position he is going to need counsel, thinking, persons, etc. He showed gratitude for this and at the invitation to visit us for lunch at the Curia he said he would oblige. There was full commonality of feeling on several issues that we discussed and I remained with the conviction that we will work very well together for the service of the Church ...

There was calm, humor and mutual understanding about past, present and future. I left the Casa de Santa Marta convinced that the Pope will gladly count on our collaboration in the vineyard of the Lord. At the end he helped me with my coat and accompanied me to the door. That added a couple of salutes to me from the Swiss Guards there. A Jesuit embrace, once again, as the natural way to greet and send off a friend.”

JESUITS

POSITIONS OF POWER

Shortly after Pope Paul III sanctioned the Society of Jesus, the Office of Inquisition was revived and the Pope gave free reign to the Jesuits to run this office, and the inquisitor Generals were granted exceptional powers in carrying out their mandate to root out of all “heretics.” This caused the martyrdom of millions of saints.

The Inquisition was a group of institutions within the judicial system of the Roman Catholic Church whose aim was to combat heresy. It started in 12th-century France to combat religious sectarianism, in particular the Cathars and the Waldensians. Other groups which were investigated later include the Spiritual Franciscans, the Hussites (followers of Jan Hus) and Beguines. Beginning in the 1250s, inquisitors were generally chosen from members of the Jesuit Dominican Order, to replace the earlier practice of using local clergy as judges

The quotes below show the effect of Jesuits taking over the Office of the Inquisition:

“Need I speak to you of the thirty years’ war in Germany, which was mainly instigated by the Jesuits, in order to deprive the Protestants of the right of free religious worship, secured to them by the treaty of Augsburg? Or of the Irish rebellion, of the inhuman butchery of about fifteen millions of Indians in South America, Mexico and Cuba, by the Spanish papists? In short, it is calculated by authentic historians, that papal Rome has shed the blood of sixty-eight millions of the human race in order to establish her unfounded claims to religious dominion.” Source: Dr. Brownlee’s “Popery an enemy to civil liberty”, p. 105

“This was the century of the last religious wars in “Christendom,” the Thirty Years’ War in Germany, fomented by the Jesuits, reducing the people to cannibalism, and the population of Bohemia from 4,000,000 to 780,000, and of Germany from 20,000,000 to 7,000,000, and making Southern Germany almost a desert, ...”Source: Cushing B. Hassell, History of the Church of God, Chapter XVII.

Writing about the Jesuits, [John] Lord states

“They are accused of securing the revocation of the Edict of Nantes,— one of the greatest crimes in the history of modern times, which led to the expulsion of four hundred thousand Protestants from France, and the execution of four hundred thousand more.” Source: John Lord, Beacon Lights of History, volume VI, p. 325.

“In Bohemia, by 1600, in a population of 4,000,000, 80 per cent were Protestant. When the Hapsburgs and Jesuits had done their work, 800,000 were left, all Catholics.” Source: Henry H., Pocket Bible Handbook, Chicago, 13th edition, 1939, p. 790.

JESUITS ABOLISHED IN 1773

Pope Clement XIV abolished the Jesuits as a society in 1773. It did not take long for the 18th Century Catholic nations to get tired of the meddling of the Jesuits into their national affairs. They were so infuriated against the Jesuits that they demanded the Roman Catholic Church abolish them once and for all.

The Jesuit Order was now formally banned by Pope Clement XIV's Bull of Suppression issued in 1773. The Bull was effective in countries where the Roman Catholic Church and the Civil State were united. In countries where another Church was united with the State, the Bull would not be enforced. Such was the case with Prussia and Russia. Since Pope Clement XIV's Bull of Suppression would not be enforced in Russia, the Jesuits sought and received admittance and protection there. In spite of the fact that Peter the Great had expelled the Jesuits during his reign in 1719, Catherine the Great freely readmitted them once again in 1773. Jesuit order info/Prussia.docx

Sufficient political pressure was brought to bear on Pope Clement XIII. However, he passed away before he could do anything about it. The task of abolishing the Society of Jesus then fell on his successor, Clement XIV. As Clement XIV signed the decree abolishing the Jesuit Order he said, “I have signed my death warrant,...” Within nine months he was dead.

life. For the three months that he endured this terrible agony, his courage never failed him for a moment ; one day only, after a more violent crisis than all the others, he said, “Alas, I knew well that they would poison me, but I did not expect to die in so slow and cruel a manner.” He became, if we may so speak, the shadow of himself ; his flesh was

TORTURED HISTORY

No other entity on Earth was expelled and suppressed by Catholic and non-Catholic countries as the Jesuits: Obviously the Jesuits were not expelled from many nations (even Catholic nations) because of their educational or charity work. They were expelled for engaging in and carrying out subversive political plots against humanity to advance their own cause.

"Between 1555 and 1931 the Society of Jesus [i.e., the Jesuit Order] was expelled from at least 83 countries, city states and cities, for engaging in political intrigue and subversion plots against the welfare of the State, according to the records of a Jesuit priest of repute [i.e., Thomas J. Campbell]. Practically every instance of expulsion was for political intrigue, political infiltration, political subversion, and inciting to political insurrection."

The Jesuits are known for their deception, spying, infiltration, assassination, and revolution. They worked deep into the political field and plotted through politics throughout the world countries.

Source: "The Babington Plot", by J.E.C. Shepherd, p.12

When the Jesuits were expelled from a country, they simply change strategies and return to the country they were expelled from under a new disguise. The following sums up their operational strategy:

"We came in like lambs and will rule like wolves. We shall be expelled like dogs and return like eagles."

RESTORATION OF THE JESUIT ORDER

After Pope Pius VII was freed from exile in 1814, his first order of business upon returning to Rome was to restore the Jesuit order

The papacy suffered great humiliation at the hand of Napoleon. Thus, right after the defeat of Napoleon in 1814, Pope Pius VII was freed from imprisonment and was returned to Rome. The need to restore the Jesuit militia became an urgent matter. Rome did not want to be deprived again of the services of the Jesuits, no matter how burdensome this service was to the Church of Rome, and its allies.

"In the agreement to rescue Rome [i.e., the Roman Catholic Church's hierarchy] from the predicament of losing its world control to Protestantism, and to preserve the spiritual and temporal supremacy which the popes [had] 'usurped' during the Middle Ages, Rome now 'sold' the [Roman Catholic] Church to the Society of Jesus [i.e., the Jesuits]; in essence the popes surrendered themselves into their hands."

HITLER AND THE JESUIT CONNECTION

Hitler modeled his dreaded SS army and party after the organizational structure of the Jesuits and the Roman Catholic Church:

"...the SS organization had been constituted according to the principles of the Jesuit Order."

Source: "The Secret History of the Jesuits," by Edmond Paris, p. 164

Walter Schellenberg, former chief of Nazi counter-espionage made this statement:

"The S.S. organization had been constituted by Himmler [Heinrich Himmler, leading member of the Nazi party] according to the principles of the Jesuit Order. Their regulations and the Spiritual Exercises prescribed by Ignatius of Loyola were the model Himmler tried to copy exactly. Himmler's title as supreme chief of the S.S. was to be the equivalent of the Jesuits' 'General' and the whole structure was a close imitation of the Catholic Church's hierarchical order." "The Secret History of the Jesuits," by Edmond Paris, p. 164

Above all I have learned from the Jesuits. And so did Lenin too, "far as I recall. The world has never known anything quite so splendid as the hierarchical structure of the Catholic Church. There were quite a few things I simply appropriated from the Jesuits for the use of the Party.

Source: Manfred Barthel, "The Jesuits: History and Legend of the Society of Jesus (New York, 1984), Adolf Hitler, p.266.

"I learned much from the Order of the Jesuits", said Hitler... "Until now, there has never been anything more grandiose, on the earth, than the hierarchical organization of the Catholic Church. I transferred much of this organization into my own party... I am going to let you in on a secret... I am founding an Order... In my "Burgs" of the Order, we will raise up a youth which will make the world tremble... Hitler then stopped, saying that he couldn't say any more.. "Source: "Hermann Rauschning, former national-socialist chief of the government of Dantzig: "Hitler m'a dit", (Ed. Co -operation, Paris 1939, pp.266, 267, 273 ss).

"The Fuhrer had come to power, thanks to the votes of the Catholic Zentrum [Center Party overseen by Jesuit Ludwig Kaas], only five years before 1933, but most of the objectives cynically revealed in Mein Kampf were already realized; this book . . . was written by the Jesuit controlled Father Bernhardt Stempfle and signed by Hitler. For . . . it was the Society of Jesus which perfected the famous Pan -German programme as laid out in this book, and the Fuhrer endorsed it."

Franz von Papen, another powerful Nazi, who was instrumental in setting up the concordat between Germany and the Vatican had this to say:

"The Third Reich is the first world power which not only acknowledges but also puts into practice the high principles of the papacy."

JESUIT EDUCATIONAL INDOCTRINATION

Over the last 400 years the Jesuits have succeeded in establishing the largest worldwide network of schools and universities.

These prominent schools and universities, have produced many well known alumni. Thus, the Jesuits have been able to shape and mold the thinking of many famous world leaders, and produce generations of political and religious leaders who were favorable to the Roman Catholic Church, and her doctrinal agenda.

The renowned British preacher, Charles Haddon Spurgeon, once warned about the church ministers who are graduating from these universities that "... they keep back a portion of the gospel ... having studied in the devil's new Jesuitical college."

Source: Charles H. Spurgeon "A Solemn Warning for All Churches," Sermon No. 68

AJCU Federal Relations Network is the lobbying arm of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities and comprised of at least one representative from each one of the twenty-eight Jesuit Colleges and Universities.

The Network is kept up to date on an on-going basis by the Vice President for Federal Relations on all issues relating to Appropriations, budget, higher education authorization issues and taxes. The Network meets annually in September for a Legislative Conference and also participates in the Annual Committee for Education Funding Legislative Conference and Awards Dinner.

The 35+ Conferences sponsored by the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (AJCU) are affinity groups within the AJCU Network. The Conferences provide a forum for the exchange of ideas, information and best practices; support the professional development of their members; and present opportunities for AJCU representatives to discuss opportunities and challenges in Jesuit higher education. Most of the AJCU Conference groups meet in person at least once a year, and many of them communicate regularly through an AJCU listserv.

The member institutions of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (AJCU) are committed to developing programs and partnerships that advance international education and support initiatives that advance global citizenship.

JESUITS

Jesuits work in many roles in parish and retreat ministry, in high schools and colleges, as lawyers, doctors, psychologists and counselors, writers and journalists, theologians and philosophers, researchers and scientists and in many places and with many different peoples in cities, rural areas, in the missions of South America, Africa, and elsewhere. The Jesuits are renowned the world over for excellence in education. Almost from the beginning, Jesuits were teaching at various universities in Europe. Currently the Jesuits maintain, 70 secondary and primary schools, 50 Jesuit High Schools and 28 universities in the United States.

Archbishop Edward Cardinal Egan

Archbishop Timothy Cardinal Dolan

You could call them the Social engineers for the New World Order. If you are going to control public opinion you have to control education. Universities are a filtering device to hand pick their candidates for key positions. Universities are teaching more than just an education, it is an indoctrination which comes with a diploma.

DOMINATING THE CONFESSOR FIELD

The Jesuits became the predominant group supplying confessors to (meaning, hearers of the confessions of) kings and princes and those in authority. As the New Catholic Encyclopedia says, "they acted as royal confessor to all French kings for 2 centuries, from Henry III to Louis XV; to all German emperors after the early 17th century; to all Dukes of Bavaria after 1579; to most rulers of Poland and Portugal; to princely families throughout Europe.

As advisors to kings, they influenced political policy. A royal confessor was not slow to tell a king that he had a duty to make the kind of political alliances that would promote the temporal interests of the Church. It was Le Tellier, Jesuit confessor to Louis XIV, who in the 1680's persuaded that monarch to revoke the Edict of Nantes, which granted religious liberty to Protestants."

The Jesuits are even confessors of popes.

"The Pope's confessor, an ordinary priest, must be a Jesuit: he must visit the Vatican once a week at a fixed time, and he alone may absolve the Pope of his sins." Source: <http://amazingdiscoveries.org/S-deception-The-New-Superior-General-A-Wolf-in-Sheeps-Clothing>

JESUIT UNDERMINING OF AMERICA

The Jesuit mission is not only the establishment of a European Holy Roman Empire that also pulls in the vast populations of Africa and Latin America to provide a geo political stranglehold over the world but also to undermine the United States of America so that it either wanes in power or becomes a bastion of the Vatican vision.

One area of proof is the fact that many of Obama's intelligence leaders are Vatican/Jesuit trained. For instance on September 9th 2010 (see image on the next page), President Barack Obama met with the Director of National Intelligence James Clapper, right (Alma Mater St. Mary's University, Texas), in the Oval Office,.

Also attending were, clockwise from left, Robert Cardillo, DIA deputy Director (and now Director of National intelligence for intelligence integration and schooled at Jesuit Georgetown), Deputy National Security Advisor Tom Donilon (Donillon attended La Salle Academy, earned a B.A. at The Catholic University of America in 1977 and is connected personally to the Biden family). Rodney Snyder, Senior Director for intelligence Program, NSS (Can not find any kind of BIO on him). John Brennan, Assistant to the President for Homeland Security and Counter terrorism (Attended private catholic schools from his youth, is Alma Mater at Jesuit Fordham University and is former CIA), and National Security Advisor Gen. James L. Jones (Alma Mater Jesuit Georgetown University).

JESUITS

CHARITY FRONTING

Creating benign charity fronts is a Jesuit led operation to try and confuse people about their fascistic history and their present operations. Sometimes these seemingly harmless 'charity' organizations are also used for information gathering and espionage in foreign countries.

Examples:

1. Rotary International (1905). Over 32,000 clubs in 200 countries. See also their support for the UN globalist agenda.

“The Rotarians are a bit like Boy Scouts (1907) grown old and successful.” The celebrated writer ignored (no doubt) to what extent he was correct, at least regarding the common origin of the two groups.

Father Esposito actually recalled Rotary's Masonic spirit with these enlightened words:

“The existing rapport between this organization and Masonry is essential, not only because of its founding on February 23, 1905 by the lawyer, Paul P. Harris, of Chicago, along with three of his fellow Masons, but also because of the ideological and juridical elements, borrowed from Masonry, which take the best in the initiatory message in order to insert it into society and laicize it, that is by excluding the initiatory and restrictive aspects, which - by always excluding religious confessionality - have a certain sacred although lay character.”

2. Malteser International (founded in 1953 as Malteser Germany, renamed in 2005). Operating in 30 countries in Africa, Asia, Europe and the Americas.

REVERSING THE REFORMATION

Ecumenism and the reversal of the reformation remains is a significant objective of the Jesuit global strategy where they have been highly influential not just today but throughout history ever since the reformation era. They have promoted and supported Catholic ecumenism through the Mennonite World Conference (1925, Switzerland), World Jewish Congress (1936, Switzerland), World Council of Churches (1937, 340 churches), Lutheran World Federation (1947, 140 churches), Conference of European Churches (1959, 125 churches) meetings, World Alliance of Reformed Churches (1970, 214 churches), World Methodist Council (1881).

JESUITS

CONCLUSION

Given the historic facts about the Jesuits, it is incredulous and most shocking to see the media and the world's religious and political leaders stampeding to endorse and praise Pope Francis.

The prescient warning of General Sherman is most appropriate to quote today:

"I would remind you of Webster's definition of a Jesuit: a designer, an intriguer. If the Church of Rome prevailed, the Pope would be the Universal King . . . The Jesuits are here to plot and scheme and, if possible, take from us the noble heritage of our civil and religious freedom. The rules of the Jesuit Order justify theft, licentiousness, lying, false-witness bearing, suicide and the murder of parents and other relatives. The greatest crimes in history committed against individuals and nations have been committed by the Jesuits . . . Wherever Jesuits are they have the torch to burn, the sword to slay, the inquisition to torture. They are the enemies of [Bible-believing] Christianity. They live for conquest, fortune and glory."

Of those that have accused the Vatican of being infiltrated by satanists, none has been as widely noticed as the late Malachi Martin. An expert on the Dead Sea Scrolls, he also wrote about such widely diverse topics as exorcism, Church history and modern geopolitics. From 1958 until 1964, Malachi Martin served in Rome as a Jesuit priest, where he was a close associate of the Popes, and carried out many sensitive missions for, the renowned Jesuit Cardinal Augustin Bea and Popes John XXIII and Paul VI. Released afterwards from his vows of poverty and obedience at his own request (but still a priest), he ultimately moved to New York and became a best-selling writer of fiction and non-fiction. Martin had first made explicit reference to a diabolic rite held in Rome in his 1990 non-fiction best-seller about geopolitics and the Vatican, The Keys of This Blood, in which he wrote:

"Most frighteningly for [Pope] John Paul [II], he had come up against the irremovable presence of a malign strength in his own Vatican and in certain bishops' chanceries. It was what knowledgeable Churchmen called the 'superforce.' Rumors, always difficult to verify, tied its installation to the beginning of Pope Paul VI's reign in 1963. Indeed Paul had alluded somberly to 'the smoke of Satan which has entered the Sanctuary'. . . an oblique reference to an enthronement ceremony by Satanists in the Vatican. Besides, the incidence of Satanic pedophilia — rites and practices was already documented among certain bishops and priests as widely dispersed as Turin, in Italy, and South Carolina, in 'the United States. The cultic acts of Satanic pedophilia are considered by professionals to be the culmination of the Fallen Archangel's rites. (p. 632)

Below are some excerpts from an article entitled "Spiritual Wickedness in High Places : Malachi Martin on The End of Religion (As We Know It)":

"Ever since Nimrod and the Tower of Babel, the Power Elite have never given up on their feverish dream of a One World Government. Former Jesuit Malachi Martin's novel, Windswept House (Doubleday/ Main Street Books), offers a lurid behind the scenes look at a cabal of Vatican insiders who want to use the Roman Catholic Church as a foundation for a politico-religious New World Order. The plot of the novel involves a group of Church officials who scheme with a group of like-minded corporate executives to manipulate the Church into a ready-made infrastructure for a One World Religion -- a universal umbrella for everybody from Episcopalians to voodoo practitioners. The new ecumenicalism is clothed in Globalist garb. The agenda includes promoting issues like population control, environmentalism and secular humanism, which the plotters hope will eventually lead to the complete secularization of religion. The most outrageous and controversial premise of the novel -- described in great detail in the prologue -- is that a ceremony was performed in the Vatican in 1963 -- an occult ritual which enthroned the fallen archangel Lucifer as the head of the Roman Catholic Church. Does Dr. Martin believe that this enthronement actually took place in his novel, which could liberally be described as a roman a clef? "Yes, it did," he says emphatically. 'Beyond a shadow of a doubt in my mind. But now the place, time, hour etc., are all obfuscated to protect the guilty and save the innocent'."
